LIFTING OF RESTRICTIONS ON FUEL GIVES RELIEF TO BIG PART OF COUNTRY

Business Benefits Where Ban Is Raised Under Authority Granted by Hines,

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.-The nation found partial relief to-day from the rigid restrictions on coal consumption enforced through the Railroad Administration as a result of the fuel dearth caused by the strike of soft coal miners. Regional directors of railroads over practically the entire country have modified the restrictions by authority of Director General Hines, who issued an order leaving the enforcement of the regulations to their discretion.

Where local conditions permitted, the directors, after receiving the order, revoked the restrictions on coal and wave merchants an opportunity Christmas trade.

The order of the director-general Government regarded the strike as warning, however, that conservation election. 25,000,000 tons, lost through the strike,
